GONZALEZ

INSTRUCTOR

My name is Sucel González, I am an oboe, chamber music and piano teacher. I studied for 9 years and graduated from the “Escuela Nacional de Arte” (ENA) in Cuba. While still a student I was part of an Ensemble Alternativo music orchestra. After graduating I spent 2 years teaching classes at the “Benny More” art school in the city of Cienfuegos, where I trained 10 primary and secondary education students. Then I worked as deputy director of music and professor at the “Paulita Concepcion” conservatory in the City of Havana for a semester. At the end of my contract, I started in a concert band for 3 years where we participated in several national and international events, at the same time I was part of the Camerata “Nueva Vida” where we participated in national events such as Cubadisco 2022, a musical festival broadcast on television Cubana, where we played accompanied by the Cuban singer Ivett Cepeda, whose song was the opening theme for La telenovela “Tú”.
